

The Bikers Creed

- I ride because it is fun. I ride because I enjoy the freedom I feel from being exposed to the elements, and the vulnerability to the danger that is intrinsic to riding
- I do not ride for attention, respect, or fear from those that do Not ride, nor do I wish to intimidate or annoy them. For those that do not know me, all I wish from them is to ignore me. For those that desire to know me, I will share with them the truth of myself, so that they might understand me and not fear others like me.
- I will not judge other bikers on their choice of machine, their appearance, or their profession. I will judge them only on their conduct as bikers. I am proud of my accomplishments as a biker, though I will not flaunt them to others, if they ask I will share them.
- I will show respect to other bikers more experienced or knowledgeable than I am. I will learn from them what I can. However, if they show me disrespect, they will be set straight.
- I do not fear. I will, however, do all possible to avoid death prematurely. Fear is the enemy, not death. Fear on the highway leads to death, therefore I will not let fear be my master. I will master it.
- I will never be the aggressor on the highway. However should other mess with me, their aggression will be dealt with in a severe manner as I can cast upon them.
- My machine is not a toy. It is an extension of my being, and I will treat it accordingly, with the same respect as I have for myself.
- I strive to constantly, better my skill of control over my machine. I will learn its limits, and use my skill to become one with my machine so that we may keep each other alive. I am the master, it is my servant. Working together in harmony, we will become an invincible team.
- I will stand ready to help any other bikers that truly need my help. I will never ask another biker to do for me what I can do for myself. I am not a part-time biker. I am a biker when, and where-ever I go. I am proud to be a biker, and hide my chosen lifestyle from no one. I ride because I love freedom, independence, and the movement of the ground beneath me. But most of all, I ride to better understand myself, my machine, the land in which I ride, and to seek out and know other bikers like myself.
- It will be my task to mentor new riders, that so desire, into the lifestyle of the biker, so that the breed shall continue. I shall instruct them, as I have been instructed by those before me. I shall preserve and honor traditions of bikers before me, and I will pass them on unaltered.
- I strive to understand the inner-workings, from the most basic to the most complex; I learn everything I can about my machine, so that I am reliant upon no one but myself for its health and well-being.
- My machine will out last me. Therefore, they are my legacy. I will care for them for future bikers to cherish as I have cherished them, whoever they may be
- I ride my machine, not wear it. My machine is not a symbol of status. It exists simply for me and me alone.
- I do not ride because it is fashionable to do so. I ride because it is part of my soul & spirit !
